

Abdulrahman Alqudaib

Director

Abdulrahman Alqudaib brings over 25 years of distinguished leadership experience in strategy and operations, with a strong track record of delivering large-scale programs and transformative initiatives across key government and private sector organizations in Saudi Arabia.

Abdulrahman has served as Advisor to the Chairman of the Board of General Entertainment Authority since January 2019. He has also held various senior roles at prominent entities, including the General Sports Authority, as Deputy for Technical Affairs, the King Fahd Causeway Authority, and the Saudi Electricity Company.

Abdulrahman is known for his ability to design and execute strategic plans, lead complex infrastructure projects, define corporate performance targets, and build organizational capabilities in people, systems, and processes.

Abdulrahman holds an Executive MBA from IMD, a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from King Fahd University of Petroleum & Minerals, and has completed advanced leadership programs at Harvard Business School and the IMD Board Director Diploma program.