

Mohammed A. Al Thomairi

Deputy Chairman of Aramco Stadium
Company

Mohammed A. Al Thomairi is the Vice President of Government Affairs at the Saudi Arabian Oil Company (Saudi Aramco), a position he has held since August 2021.

Mr. Al Thomairi brings more than 25 years of progressive leadership experience across Saudi Aramco and key government entities, including the Ministry of Energy and the Ministry of Health. His professional expertise spans strategic planning, change management, organizational development, business acumen, and project management, supported by a strong track record of leading complex, cross-sector initiatives and large-scale national programs.

Since joining Saudi Aramco in 1997, Mr. Al Thomairi has held a number of senior leadership positions, including Head of Financial Affairs and Assistant to the Executive Director of Health Services, Manager of the Medical Support Services Department, Manager of the Public Relations Operations Department, and General Manager of the Chairman's Office. These roles provided him with broad exposure to corporate governance, stakeholder engagement, healthcare administration, and executive leadership, culminating in his appointment as Vice President of Government Affairs.

Throughout his career, Mr. Al Thomairi has represented Saudi Aramco, the Ministry of Health, and the Ministry of Energy on numerous boards and government committees. He currently serves as Vice Chairman of Aramco Stadium Company and is a Board Member of the Sports Infrastructure Committee for the 2034 FIFA World Cup, contributing to the planning and delivery of major national sports infrastructure initiatives. In addition, he serves on multiple strategic and high-level committees supporting national development priorities, public-private collaboration, and institutional transformation.

Mr. Al Thomairi has participated in numerous high-level international forums and official engagements across the United States, Europe, and Asia as part of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia's official delegations.

Mr. Al Thomairi holds a Bachelor's degree in Accounting and a Master of Business Administration (MBA). He has completed executive leadership studies at the American College of Healthcare Executives and was awarded a Higher Diploma in Executive Management Development from IMD Business School in Lausanne, Switzerland.
